

Cannabis Control Division

June 25, 2024

INDUSTRY BULLETIN: 24-01

To All Interested Parties,

The Cannabis Control Division is issuing this Industry Bulletin to provide information to the public regarding updates to the Cannabis Control Divisions website. This Industry Bulletin is the first in what will be a series of email correspondences to all licensees that will be provided on the Cannabis Control Divisions website for current licensees to refer to, for employee training purposes, for future licensees, and for other interested parties.

These updates will contain important information pertaining to all license types. Please make sure to read all email correspondence regardless of license type.

Upcoming Updates Include:

- License Approvals
- License Renewals
- New Laws, Rules, & Regulations
- General CCD Updates

These updates and all future correspondence provided by the CCD will be available on the CCD website. Please see below for a direct link to all updates:

Again, it is essential as a licensee, you read all emails regardless of your license type.

Sincerely,

Cannabis Control Division
